

ROARER, AWAKE! SNORER, ASLEEP!

ROARER Isn't caught napping. He is "on" to the best places to trade, and knows by instinct or intuition when bargains are being placed upon the counters. By the way, he is a frequent visitor at our store, and from the fact that he continues to come, we deduce the conclusion that everything is satisfactory. This is as we wish and as we strive to have it.

SNORER Is a sleepy, thick-headed fellow who is not alive to the exigencies of trade, and does not realize that right here in his own place is a store equal to any this side of Kalamazoo in every respect. If there is any way to awaken Snorer, depend upon us to find it. This seems like brag, but it's straight truth.

DRY GOODS We have placed on our counters the largest and handsomest line of Prints, Gingham, Canton Cloths, Bedford Cord Gingham, and other stylish wash fabrics, ever shown. If you want a nice Dress for early Spring, you should visit Headquarters. Next week we will receive our entire line of Woolen Dress Goods. They are handsome and as cheap as they can be bought anywhere.

CLOTHING We want to impress upon the men and boys of Ohio county that we are Leaders in the Clothing Line. If you don't believe it, come and look at our stock and get our prices. Every article bought direct from the manufacturers and guaranteed to wear as recommended. Buy direct from us; we protect you in price and quality.

BOOTS & SHOES Every day some of these heavy goods. They go at your own price. Buy now and save money. Valises, Trunks, Window Shades, Curtains, etc., at prices that defy competition. Wake up and visit us and we will convince you that Mr. J. R. Coleman, whose devotion to his people has long been a subject of remark among those who have known him, has been elected by the voters of his district, has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church at Livermore, and it is not known whether or not he will accept.

Mrs. R. J. Daniel, of Beaver Dam, is dangerously ill, as a result of injuries received in the wreck of an N. & W. V. train at Spring Lake, Christmas last. Mrs. Daniel was thrown violently across the car and against the side, where she sustained a fractured skull and a broken back and head. (Great fears are entertained that her injuries may prove fatal.)

M. H. Pate, of Hancock county, Ky., brought an "old boy" named Thomas Clark in the year 1899 and sold same to Samuel Baker, of near Nashville, Tenn. In the year 1902, and he kept him until he sold it to Merian Keith, who traded it to County Clerk Howard Halloway, who sold it to the State. A few days ago Mr. E. P. Pate called on to go to the Clerk's office, and while there the clock struck one and he saw a man in the clock purchased by Mr. Pate on the above date, and upon this discovery being made, Mr. Halloway promptly closed the door and Pate's doubts were cleared up as to the whereabouts of his clock.

Milton A. Thornton, of Lebanon, Ky., died at the highest hotel in Hartford, on the 25th of February, about thirty days of nine local mares and young stock, and a number of the mares are in foal for royal road stallions. This lot of stock is the best ever shipped to this part of the State, have all been selected with great care from the best stock in the heart of the State, and will be sold without reserve or by bid, and warranted to wear as represented. Capt. D. D. Daniel will conduct the sale, and says he will sell the people of Ohio county a royal lot of stock on that day. Let everybody attend and see for themselves, and keep up with the rest of the State.

A Secret Wedding.
Married in the most profound secrecy, it is learned from "By the Heralds" daily burning" late Sunday night, the wedding ceremony was so secret that the witnesses were so sworn to the secret of the ceremony. The record of the license is in the hands of the clerk who issued it, and the bride and groom, the last home of her parents in Texas. This is the history, the full details of which are in the Heralds' full book early next morning.

Some weeks ago there came to visit Mr. J. P. Thomson from his home in New York, by the way, Mr. Thomson is Taylor, who by his beauty and good sense, attracted many admirers. Several of these were diligent in their attentions, and for a time it seemed uncertain which would prefer, but then in position to observe upon the advantages of each, and when Mr. Thomson had obtained, and it was known that the young people were very much attached to each other, but even their friends did not suspect an immoderate marriage. It became necessary, however, that Miss Taylor should visit her home in New York, and when she should return to Kentucky again, she would be in a position to make a decision as to whether or not she would be married to him. It was known that the young people were very much attached to each other, but even their friends did not suspect an immoderate marriage. It became necessary, however, that Miss Taylor should visit her home in New York, and when she should return to Kentucky again, she would be in a position to make a decision as to whether or not she would be married to him.

The ground has now a shadowy yellow and straightway pulled into his hole for six long weeks.

Anderson's Bazaar.

Our customers always find our Goods just as they are represented to be—Honest Goods at Honest Prices, which are always the lowest.

No patron of the BAZAAR ever accuses us of selling goods cheaper to their neighbor than to themselves. We don't do business that way.

Everybody acknowledges that our system of selling goods—"ONE PRICE TO ALL"—is the only honest way of doing business. Try us once.

Prices are always the lowest at the BAZAAR, because a store that does a "One-Price-to-All" business must have the lowest price, or lose trade.

Reason teaches all that the place to buy goods cheapest is at a "One-Price-Store" because all goods are marked as low as they can possibly be sold.

If you have never patronized the BAZAAR, it is time for you to pay us a visit and examine our goods—our prices will do the rest.

Cheapest goods are not always those that are lowest in price. Our goods are cheap because they are the best that can be bought for our prices.

Every article in the BAZAAR is marked in plain figures, and here is where your child can buy goods as cheaply as yourself or anyone else.

The "ONE-PRICE-TO-ALL" system and "HONEST GOODS AT HONEST PRICES" is winning new friends for the BAZAAR and "SARA & ME" every day.

Our Ladies, Misses and Childrens Shoes are all Solid Leather, Honestly Made, and are much cheaper than those made with pasteboard and paper insoles.

All who want Dry Goods, Notions, Dress Goods, Dress Trimmings, Fancy Goods and the latest Styles in Millinery, can no doubt be suited at the BAZAAR.

Lines upon lines of Goods are kept in the BAZAAR, that we cannot enumerate here, but if you will visit SARA & ME, we'll take pleasure in showing you through.

Live, and sell goods to customers like we expected to meet them again and to serve all honestly and with politeness, is the earnest desire of

"SARA AND ME."
